

Producer (Midlands) - Part-time

£25K FTE pro rata part time 0.6 FTE, i.e. 21 hours per week.

Apples and Snakes, the leading organisation for spoken word poetry, seeks a dynamic, creative and efficient producer to join our national team, to deliver our artistic ambitions as we move into our next exciting phase. With a current focus on delivering work in Birmingham and Stratford-upon-Avon, you will build on our partnerships, identify new strategic opportunities in the region, and nurture talent.

Apples and Snakes core mission is to champion poets and poetry, amplify unheard voices and challenge expectations of what poetry can be. We are dedicated to increasing the diversity of our workforce, reflecting the artists and communities within which we work. We strongly encourage and welcome applications from candidates from all backgrounds and individuals with disabilities.

Closing date for applications: Friday 24 May @ 5pm

1st interviews: Tuesday 4 June, Birmingham

2nd interviews: Tuesday 11 June, London

HOW TO APPLY

Please download the application pack from <https://applesandsnakes.org/vacancies-volunteer/> and send a CV and Cover Letter detailing your experience, skills and how you meet the person specification to recruitment@applesandsnakes.org

To find out more visit our website: <https://applesandsnakes.org/>